

We're Hiring

Forest Bio-economy Policy Analyst

As our policy analyst intern, you will be:

- Providing research and benchmarking nationally and internationally around
 - forest bio-economy technologies and products
 - the forest sector and forest bio-economy policies, business support mechanisms etc.
- Aligning your research and benchmarking with Ontario policy and regulations
- Drafting information and communication materials to support the results of your research and benchmarking
- Supporting CRIBE staff with ongoing initiatives

Qualifications

- Has a post-secondary degree or diploma in natural resources, chemical engineering, business or related field,
- is either a new entrant into the workforce, is transitioning to a new career, or is unemployed or underemployed and is entering a new field,
- has not previously participated in Fednor's Internship Program,
- is at least 18 years of age,
- resides or will reside in Thunder Bay, ON for the duration of the internship,
- is legally entitled to work in Canada.

Internship Logistics

Thunder Bay, ON

Applications due: April 14, 2024

Tentative internship start date: May 13th, 2024 (negotiable)

Internship duration: 1 year

Compensation: $22/hr

If you are interested in this position, please send your cover letter and resume to:

info@cribe.ca

We look forward to hearing from you!

This opportunity is proudly sponsored by

